3 2 3

Sitting high on the block and commanding beautiful views across to the Blackall Range, this solid home is the place to unwind from a days work and capture the cooling breezes. This low maintenance property has lawns for the pets and plenty of room to create a vegie patch, you really have lots of options. When you want to put your feet up, pull up a chair and enjoy the sunsets over the hills.

A functional central kitchen which overlooks the dining and living areas, has an abundance of cupboard space, built in oven and a gas cooktop. The dining area looks out to the alfresco and the large living area with bay windows looks across the garden, capturing views to the range.

With lovely breezes flowing through the room and views to enjoy, the master bedroom, complete with a split system air-con and bay window is a perfect place to relax, read a
